ACTS GROWING MINISTRY LEADERS

INSTRUCTORS

Rev. Mark Mahserjian-Smith has served in ABCOPAD for 25 years, first as a volunteer in 1999 and then in 2001, becoming a part-time staff member working in technology and communication. In 2008, Mark was called to a full-time position as the Central Area Minister and later, the Regional Pastor for Mission and Communication. Recently, in 2022 Mark was asked to be the Acting Co-Regional Executive Pastor and in February 2024 became the ABCOPAD Regional Executive Pastor. As Executive Pastor, Pastor Mark oversees the work being done on the Commission of Ministerial Leadership.

Rev. Dr. Kevin Walden, an ordained pastor for 30 years, serves as the Transitional Interim Pastor for Thrive Community Church of Lancaster, PA, and is the Acting Chair of ABCOPAD's Commission on Ministerial Leadership (COML). Over the last 13 years, Kevin has taught for ACTS in the Pastoral Leadership and Ethics courses. Kevin's doctoral research and project focused on Ethics Training for pastors and congregations. He used this experience while on the staff of ABCOPAD and ABCUSA.

Clergy Ethics - Online June 13 - 14, 2025
Early Bird $99.00 by May 1st
Regular Rate $150.00
The deadline for registration is Sunday, June 8, 2025.

This course is designed to help ministerial leaders better understand the various ethical issues that impact one's ministry. Participants will have directed experiences, both in class and out, emphasizing the character needs and ethical issues confronting leaders in contemporary ministerial settings. This course will focus on three areas relating to Clergy Ethics: money, sex, and power, with additional areas impacting the ethical behavior of ministerial leaders being discussed.

Clergy Ethics is REQUIRED for ALL levels of recognized credentialing within ABCOPAD and ABC/USA. It is only offered once a year and cannot be completed by independent study. If you need this course, please sign up today!
